

REINVENTED ORGANIC CSA FARMSHARE

FLEXIBLE CSA/FARM SHARE at EMPIRE FARM

FarmOn! at Empire Farm Organic Farm Share 2023 Support Youth Education with your Flexible Subscription

We remain committed to supporting local and organic agriculture in the Hudson Valley as we envision a world where careers in agriculture are valued and profitable, FarmOn! Foundation is excited to share our Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) at Empire Farm in Copake NY. We launched our #abcsa Farm Share Program in NYC with abc kitchen by Chef Jean Georges 11 years ago pairing his celebrated recipes in a pioneer program with an aggregated box of fresh grocery goods from the farm to your table as a way to eat fresh organic Hudson Valley produce and products, fund family farms, support charity and skip the supermarket with seed money to start the farming season!

We must value our health before it's gone and commit to support local farms that adhere to strict protocol and food handling guidelines like Empire Farm and partner farms.

By purchasing local organic seasonal food directly from the farm, you not only eat right, but 100% of your farm share supports careers in agriculture through our immersive youth education programs and local family farms that produce fruit, dairy and meat by prepaying the farmers for their products. All produce is organic and seasonal.

- Organic greens are harvested same day
- Vegetables are seasonal
- Dairy is sourced locally
- Eggs are free range, pastured
- Flowers are grown biodynamically, wildflowers are foraged ethically
- Organic CBD products from organic hemp grown at Empire Farm
- CSA multiple share offers allow pick up from June through October

HOW IT WORKS: CHOICES! CHOICES! You may pre-buy between 1 and 20 shares with your tax deductible donation to FarmOn! Foundation. Shares feed a family of 2-4, for approximately one week. Fulfill your pick-ups any combination of weeks beginning in June and ending in October.
