FRUIT, EGGS, FLOWERS + OPTIONS

We remain committed to supporting local and organic agriculture in the Hudson Valley as we envision a world where careers in agriculture are valued and profitable, FarmOn! Foundation is excited to share our Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) at Empire Farm in Copake NY. We launched our #abcsa Farm Share Program in NYC with abc kitchen by Chef Jean Georges 10 years ago pairing his celebrated recipes in a pioneer program with an aggregated box of fresh grocery goods from the farm to your table as a way to eat fresh organic Hudson Valley produce and products, fund family farms, support charity and skip the supermarket with seed money to start the farming season!

We must value our health before it's gone and commit to support local farms that adhere to strict protocol and food handling guidelines like Empire Farm and partner farms.

By purchasing local organic seasonal food directly from the farm, you not only eat right, but 100% of your farm share supports careers in agriculture through our immersive youth education programs and local family farms that produce fruit, dairy and meat by pre-paying the farmers for their products. All produce is organic and seasonal.
